Hi everyone, I just wanted to make a letter

From: linuxlarp

This has been an amazing ride. Over 1.5+ years of pure operations, But it's time to let go officially, As of today. 12/24/25, Southwest Airlines PTFS will be ceasing operations permanently, this means that all flights will be permanently suspended. And we will never return.

Simply said, I'm now 15 years old. I have my entire life ahead of me. I can't be dedicating this much of my free time to a virtual shitbox. And I need to start preparing for my IRL career.

I'm overworked, stressed, and generally burnt out, just from this one little roblox group. Considering I am the only active developer working on the website, airline, staff team and more. I was always very overly ambitious with this kind of stuff, and I think that is a partial reason why you're reading this letter.

I know I've crashed out multiple times, saying I wanted to quit and threatened to shut it down, But this time. I'm 100% standing with my decision, and I've made this decision out of a pure heart, and my own will.

I want to thank my entire staff team, executive team and everyone who put so much work and dedication into this group. Your work will not be forgotten and always appreciated from the bottom of my heart.

I may be quite emotional typing this, as even though this was just a virtual airline and a discord server, this is a huge chapter of my life I'm closing out for good. I've learned so many valuable skills, the team and others along my side have done so much and dealt with so much shit from so many people. Which i'll dive into a bit later in this big messages, but first since i have a feeling these things will get asked:

What's gonna happen to the Southwest Airlines Website and all its Technologies?

Simply put, it's all going to be shut down. Shortly after this message is posted, all website links will be posted to redirect towards this letter on Google Docs. All discord bots will cease operations and stop working.

For all active users on the website, all features and all data will be deleted and shredded. With no available options for exporting, or anything. Just purely gone, nothing else.

If anybody is wondering, because airlines having a website is now a huge trend and fab within the PTFS community, no code of SWA will be open source and will remain closed source with a proprietary license. I may offer it for a huge purchase one day, but that hasn't been fully determined yet and I haven't made the necessary changes for such a future.

I've also cancelled all subscriptions for hosting, domains and virtual private servers. So, things just may stop working at random. If they were still active to begin with after this message has been posted.

What's gonna happen to the server?

It'll probably be deleted, or just remain inactive forever.

Will you be giving ownership to anybody?

No. If you DM me about it, you'll just get ignored and blocked.

What if I'm an active staff member?

The LUVCREW server will be deleted, and all roles associated with LUVCREW will be deleted in the server. We appreciate your hard work and dedication, and you guys were amazing, but there is nothing for you guys to do anymore now that operations have fully ceased.

Thank you for your work and time, I appreciate all other staff members who have contributed their time to flights and training. And especially staff members who have made programs, resources and features to help make my job easier.

Continuing back on my original letter, I would also like to thank our affiliates for always being willing to codeshare, help out, give advice or whatever. You guys are amazing and I can't thank you guys enough. Special mentions:

- JetBlue
- Delta Air Lines

Overall, this journey I've had has been an amazing one. And especially in 2025, we did a ton of numbers. Such as hitting 900 members, a website launch, and so much more. I had a ton of stuff planned, but got too burned out before I could do any work on it.

THE BETRAYAL LIST

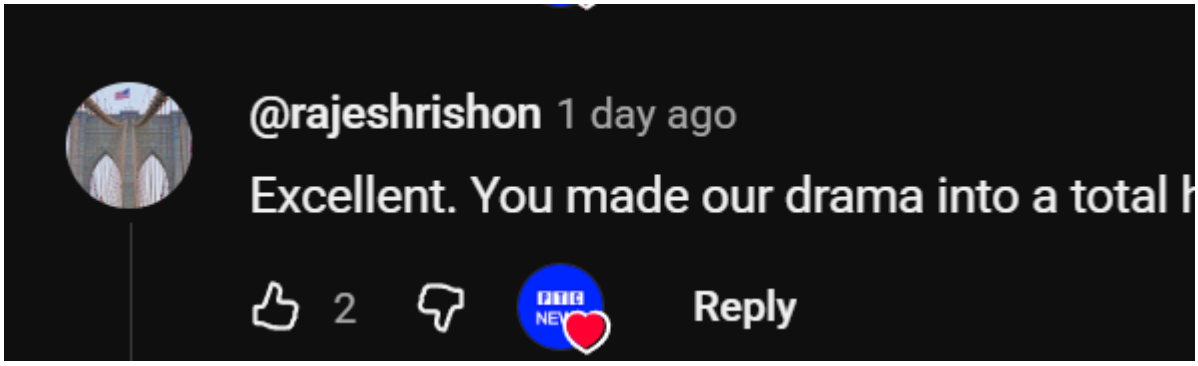
Oh boy, I've been waiting for this for a LONG time to finally get out. Let me just try to summarize who I don't like, and why and also drop a little bit of dirt.. 😀

Rick (Rajesh Rishon)

Rajesh, you are a fucking dumbass and i hope your balls drop one day. You are a retard and a criminal. You keep wanting to make “peace” to justify your actions and hope everyone forgets, but let's make this 100% clear, you are a dumbass (also a criminal) who deserves nothing. Your grammar and writing capabilities are worse than an elementary schooler and you can’t debate for shit. You are just wasted sperm in a race. Surprised you even made it to the egg. Honestly, knowing you and your friends, you guys are deadass genuinely not done. Kinda ironic you ask for us to end this drama despite you starting it, you're like alcohol on a flame.

So maybe shut the fuck up, go actually study in school instead of beating your dick or attempting to increase your ego because you’re retarded. And I will call you by your name, Rajesh Rishon (which you’ve leaked in so many different places lmao)

this is OSINT btw and if u have a problem with it go cry, or maybe consult your online activity and digital footprint



Also you’re still a criminal for faking messages, by the way.

Ben (aerophotography)

Well well well Ben… nice job sending porn to multiple people. how the fuck were you my most talked to person on discord this year. also brochacho we know you're underage 😭come on man could've done a lil bit better on holding in your personality. You're also a horny 11 or 12yo, and you should know that sending porn to other kids is ILLEGAL! EVEN IF YOU ARE A KID! Honestly get some help and stop being addicted to porn. You're not fooling anyone with that profile picture that you had of a roughly 17yo guy. (also you still goon to violaa the girl we rizzed up in washiez car wash) I don't hate you really, just I want you to become a better person, and maybe get off discord until you're old enough. <3

dude get a fucking life, you're in college and dedicating hours of your life to a roblox airline. your airline is also shit, you're not special, your airline isn't special, so shut the fuck up about your bullshit accomplishments. you make it sound like how you're so unique, and that your uniqueness allowed air canada to become such a large airline. The only thing you're good at is dickriding Orange and PTCN. You would've never gotten to where you were if you weren't lucky. Your server has nothing unique, all of your features are copied from other airlines, you aren't doing anything differently than other airlines. So tone down your ego, air canada isn't anything special, and air canada did not revolutionize anything. You purely only get recognition and members because you're ATC24 staff and you get a direct line of contact to Orange

Lets not forget how Air Canada directly copied American Airlines' banners. Lets not forget about how you harbored a criminal and defended a literal criminal. Like what the fuck could you possibly be thinking to defend a criminal who hasn't even addressed the fact that he committed a crime? Let's also not forget about how you refused to terminate a racist and retarded board member.

If anyone wants to say that I'm "jealous" about his shitty airline, just think for a second. Why would I be jealous of his unoriginal airline that is successful purely based on luck? Especially when Southwest has more objective accomplishments that were achieved through hard work and dedication.

Gamo, you're a British twat, go get a job or study for your exams, and please, for the love of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, and for all things holy, please stop LARPing. Thank you.

God, where do I begin with you? Honestly, we're all glad you're out of our group. You're a leech and mentally disabled. All you do is act like some hot shit because you can code in JavaScript and instead of actually focusing in school you dedicate your life to making ATC24 software instead of actually working on your grades which I KNOW for a fact they're all F's. You also won't shut the fuck up on how Python isn't production ready.

You claim to be this "professional" and act like you're mature because you got hired at your parents eye-care place to do nothing besides being a tax write off (lmao) and running docker containers, and you claim have all of this money because you own a big powerful dell server you got from a friend, and you have connections with people who don't even like you. In reality:

You are a degenerate and a soyboy with barely functioning testosterone . We at Southwest will always think of that when we think of you. You are especially the biggest hypocrite I've ever seen, can we mention how you tried to attempt to get Ziri to hack into us from sshing from a fucking phone. Genuinely, how low can you go for this level? Also, what I find really sad is how Larp did so much for you during your situations in life, for you to only throw him in a fucking snake pit and claim that he's encouraging you go to kill yourself. Why? Why, Aaron? Why? This is genuinely depressing to the point where you make my blood boil.

And before you start going on about how you didn't want to "hack in", YOU SHOWED INTENT. You offered Ziri the keys you had before I revoked them even if you didn't have them on your person at the time being. You even told him what to do:

Maybe you should hop on estrogen and become a femboy furry twink and sell yourself to one of those Discord e-girl dating sites. Though, then again, I doubt you'd be able to do that due to your lack of testosterone, and maybe estrogen.

And go ahead and post your shitty API code to try and get revenge for whatever I did to you. Maybe everyone in the community can see how shitty it is, and how terrible it was after a second review.

Also, sure you maybe coded the BASICS for the website and ran sudo apt update every once in a while, but that's all you will ever be credited for. Over 70% of the commits in the last year are RIGHTFULLY my work and you know it, I had to learn an entire new language just to maintain your shitty and barely readable codebase. And constantly going off about how "oh python isn't production ready," you are quite literally the stereotypical Arch Linux user of PTFS communities.

You were only there if something went absolutely wrong, and I was the only one actually providing updates and doing actual work while you were complaining about python not being "production ready".

Also, because you were so mad you revoked my rights to the codebase, which I had done 75% of the updates to, since you were the original author I couldn't do anything but legally give you the only version with your basic code, but made me realize how capable I was and how fast I could code something without your help and how much better I can make it. After comparing the data, my API was much faster and better than your code and is actually readable and maintainable unlike the shit you claimed was the "masterpiece" of PTC

Here, and just because you won't shut the fuck up about it:

Here's an article proving that FastAPI is not only faster, uses less RAM and is better then express.js, Have a read if you'd like.

Finally, since you keep claiming I "encouraged you to commit suicide," here's proof I didn't AND what I actually did what you started making self-harm remarks:

Usually, I would be nice and censor out names for people here, but since apparently I'm a "horrible person who encouraged you to commit suicide," I won't just to prove that I CONTACTED YOUR FRIEND AT 1AM BECAUSE OF THE SELF-HARM REMARKS YOU MADE.

Don't know why you ever thought we trusted you. You were on the verge of being fired at least 5 times. You’re an immature kid who doesn’t know how to handle a ticket and ragebaits clueless kids. Also, another PTC Newsie. You just believe whatever you see and don't actually check anything, and just dickride whoever gives you power.

Scrib

You never actually did anything good for SWA, you maybe helped with flights a little bit and maybe did something here and there, but you are the one who dragged us into pointless drama multiple times, all you did was say racial slurs and use that as justification because I criticized your religion’s teachings and debated you several times on it. And “racially discriminated against you,” which you had problem with me making jokes until you got kicked off the team.

Hi guys it's kapp- POLICE GET DOWN NIGGA ON SCENE

THE END.

Thanks for everything guys, it's been an amazing run. For the members who were always there, always participated and always were kind and helpful. I can not express my gratitude towards you guys. You guys are truly amazing.

Thank you to our affiliates (besides Air Canada), who helped us with codeshares, community engagement and projects that I truly enjoyed contributing to.

This project was one of my favorites, I learned so many new skills with technology, development, graphic design and so much more. While it was fun to run, all good things must come to an end.

I am extremely humbled, and honored to have led a community for this long. As previously stated, this is closing out a big chapter of my life and sometimes, a really good chapter. And sometimes a really bad one.

With all of the above being said, It is finally time to close out on everything and move on in my life, and my own personal endeavours

Thank you Southwest, much LUV.
